

As the meal was drawing to an end, Jesus said to Peter, "Simon, Simon, Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat, but I have prayed that your faith may not fail."

Peter said, "I am prepared to go to prison and to die with you."

Jesus responded, "I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me." (Luke 22: 31-34)

FATHER, LET THIS CUP Gethsemane

After the Passover meal was over, Jesus made his way once again to the Mount of Olives, and his disciples followed him. When they arrived at the place, he said to them, "pray that you may not undergo the test." Then he withdrew about a stone's throw, and kneeling down, began to pray. Lk 22: 39-42

Detailed description: The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Father, Let This Cup'. It consists of two staves of music in treble clef. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a common time signature (C), and a repeat sign. The melody starts on a whole note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, and C5. The lyrics 'Fa - ther, let this cup pass me by;' are written below the notes. Above the staff, the chords F#m and Em are indicated. The second staff begins with a treble clef, a 3/4 time signature, and a repeat sign. The melody starts on a quarter note G4, followed by a half note A4, and a quarter note B4. The lyrics 'yet not my way, but yours.' are written below the notes. Above the staff, the chords D, C, Am, Bm, and F#m are indicated. A bracket above the final measure of the second staff is labeled '8 passes'. The copyright notice '© 1997 by Shawn Tracy, OSA' is located between the two staves. The letters 'B' and 'A' are placed at the beginning of the first and second staves, respectively.

When Jesus arose from prayer and returned to his disciples, he found them weighed down with sleep.

He said to them, "Pray that you may not be put to the test."

While he was still speaking, a crowd approached. Jesus said to those who had come for him, "Have you come here with swords and clubs for some robber? Day after day I was with you in the temple, and you did not seize me! But this is your hour - the time for the power of darkness."

They arrested Jesus and led him away. (Luke 22: 45-47; 52-54)
